Notice to Claimants

To be eligible for reimbursement from the fund, the lawyer involved in your claim must be suspended, reprimanded, disbarred, convicted, have resigned, or be deceased.

Reimbursement is limited to money or property paid to or received by your lawyer.

Damages or other types of losses are not reimbursable. Reimbursement from the Lawyers' Fund for Client Protection is within the sole discretion of the Board of Commissioners and not as a matter of right. The maximum amount of reimbursement for any claim is $100,000. The Lawyers' Fund for Client Protection is separate from the lawyer discipline process. If you have not already done so, you may want to contact your local bar association or The Office of Disciplinary Counsel at 1-800-589-5256 to file a disciplinary grievance against the lawyer involved in your claim.

Notice to Claimants

Section 6(B) of Rule VIII of the Supreme Court Rules for the Government of the Bar provides "No attorney fees may be paid from the proceeds of reimbursement made to a claimant under authority of this rule. The Board may allow an award of attorney fees to be paid out of the fund if it determines that the attorney's services were necessary to prosecute a claim under this rule or upon other conditions as the Board may direct." Board Rule 14 permits payment of attorney fees up to a maximum of $500.
