

Dispositive Motion Courtesy Copies

1. Chambers will review dispositive motion briefs and post-remand comments to ensure compliance with court rules and chambers-specific requirements. After that review is completed, the court will request that counsel submit four courtesy copies of compliant filings<sup>1</sup> to the case manager. Counsel shall not submit courtesy copies until so requested.<sup>2</sup>

2. Courtesy copies of confidential briefs need not comply with Administrative Order 02-01's requirements.

3. Proposed orders shall not be included.

4. Courtesy copies shall be printed double-sided and bound with spiral (also known as coil), comb (also known as GBC), or perfect (adhesive) binding. Velo binding or stapling is prohibited.

5. Counsel shall send the courtesy copies to the following address via commercial delivery service or U.S. Mail:

Case Manager for Judge Baker
U.S. Court of International Trade
One Federal Plaza
New York, NY 10278-0001

---

<sup>1</sup> If a filing is non-compliant, the party will be required to file a corrected version.

<sup>2</sup> In a 28 U.S.C. § 1581(c) case where the parties have opted to file proof briefs, the court will only request courtesy copies of the final versions.